ARTICLE XVI -- INDEMNIFICATION

An indemnification process shall be provided to protect individuals serving as directors, officers, employees or agents of the Society. The Board of Directors of the Society shall define the process.

ARTICLE XVI -- INDEMNIFICATION

- A. The Society may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Society) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Society, or is or was serving at the request of the Society as a director, officer, employee or agent of another society against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner in which the individual reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Society, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his/her conduct was unlawful.
 The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner in which the individual reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Society, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable the personal conduct was unlawful.
- B. The Society may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Society to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Society, or is or was serving at the request of the Society as a director, officer, employee or agent of another society against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner in which the individual reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Society and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty to the Society unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.
- C. To the extent that a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Society has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Paragraphs A and B hereof, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, the individual shall be indemnified against expenses(including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection therewith.

- D. Any indemnification under Paragraphs A and B hereof (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Society only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because the individual has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in said Paragraphs A and B. Such determination shall be made (1) by a majority vote at a meeting of the Board of Directors when there is a quorum of the Board of Directors (11 members) who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (2) if such quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel a written opinion, or (3) by the House of Delegates.
- E. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Society in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the Board of Directors in the specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that the individual is entitled to be indemnified by the Society as authorized in this section.
- F. The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of members or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in official capacity of the individual and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.
- G. The Society shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Society, or is or was serving at the request of the Society as a director, officer, employee or agent of another society, against any liability asserted against the person and incurred by him/her in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Society would have the power to indemnify the person against such liability under the provisions of this section.
- H. For the purpose of this Article, references to "the Society" shall include constituent societies so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of such constituent society, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent society as a director, officer, employee or agent of another society shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this Article with respect to the constituent society as the individual would if having served the Society in the same capacity.
